Freshly renovated: Charming attic single apartment

Our newly renovated attic apartment is waiting for new tenants. In this modern apartment one to two people feel comfortable even for a longer period. The modern, well-maintained equipment and comfortable furnishings contribute to this. The charming attic living room is equipped with new leather seating furniture, TV and a small dining table for two people. In the separate bedroom there is a comfortable queen size bed (1,40 x 2,00 m) and a secretary for office work. The kitchen is fully equipped and the bright shower bathroom and the large hallway complete the picture. The good accessibility and the nearby old town of Essen Steele are further plus points.

Location and area

The apartment is located in an apartment building in the heart of the old town of Essen-Steele. Shopping facilities, stores and restaurants are within walking distance. The A40 freeway is only about 2.5 km away. The connection to public transport is also very good. The Steele S-Bahn station is only a 10-minute walk away. From there, it takes only a few minutes to get to the main train station (HBF-Essen). By car, it takes about 15 minutes to get to the city center. Bus line 166 stops in the immediate vicinity of the accommodation.
