

ZEITQUARTIER EXPOSÉ

Bright single apartment in new and comfortable equipment

This cozy single attic apartment is newly renovated and convinces with high quality of stay. In the living area there is a comfortable sofa for relaxing evenings. The open living area flows into the bright, very well equipped kitchenette with breakfast bar and seating. The 1 meter wide bed is integrated into the sloping roof to save space and can be visually separated by sliding doors. A large closet (1.60m wide) is also built into the sloping roof and offers ample storage space. The bright daylight bathroom is completely renovated and has a modern shower. A perfect single apartment for a longer stay with a great price-performance ratio in a quiet location.

Location and area

The apartment is located in a quiet residential street in the Kray district of Essen, not far from the World Heritage Site Zeche Zollverein. Directly at the house are free parking spaces, other free parking is available directly on the street sufficiently. By car you can reach the city center/main station in about 10-15 minutes, the trade fair in 20 minutes and the A 40 in about 10 minutes. Only a few meters away is the bus stop for the bus 155, which reaches the city center/HBF in about 15 minutes. The shopping center Schonnebeck with all stores for daily needs is about 5 minutes away by car (on foot about 15 minutes).
