Industrial style designer studio

This great, recently renovated studio with a trendy industrial style conveys an urban loft feeling while still offering comfort and the best furnishings. The open living area impresses with its high-quality and stylishly arranged furniture and a large flatscreen TV with cable connection. The cosy sofa can be transformed into a sofa bed in just a few simple steps, so up to four people can stay overnight if necessary. The actual sleeping area with a comfortable double bed is on a raised platform. The ultra-modern kitchen is equipped with all appliances including a dishwasher. A cosy dining area for four people is available as well as everything you need for dining. The chic black bathroom with natural lighting and a modern, walk-in shower also offers a very special touch. There is fast internet as well as a small terrace in the inner courtyard. The great central location and the monthly cleaning service included with a long stay are additional attractive features for guests who appreciate individual living with flair.
