Well equipped apartment in Katernberg

In the spacious 2-room apartment can accommodate two people on a good 70sqm. The living room is large and bright, offers a neat seating area, plenty of storage space and a dining table for up to four people. The space is complemented by the bedroom with a double bed and further storage space. The large bathroom is equipped with a bathtub with shower device and the kitchen has basic equipment.

Location and area

The apartment is located in the north of Essen in the district Katernberg, not far from the World Heritage Site Zeche Zollverein. The shopping and nightlife options in Katernberg are within walking distance in about 15 minutes - directly in the street invites you to relax the Revierpark. After a few minutes walk you can reach the public transport connections (bus and train) and in about 20 minutes you can reach all destinations of Essen's city center. By car, you need a similar amount of time (distance to the trade fair: 25 minutes) - quick connection to the highways of the Ruhr area.
